Bad Memory

K.Flay

I found you naked on the floor, hungover
Got some number written sloppy on your palm, it's over
Yeah, I recognize just who you truly are, a liar
So I set all of your records and your clothes on fire

Like what's up? I'm gone now
Feeling good, feeling great, I'm a don now
Like bye-bye, I'm set free
Not on my mind, no lie, you're just a bad
You're just a bad memory

You're just a bad memory
(Just a bad memory)

I counted every time it hurt, one thousand
Swear to God, I smell someone else on your shirt, no doubt
You made me question everything I thought I knew, a lesson
So I learned how to manipulate the world, a blessing

Like what's up? I'm gone now
Feeling good, feeling great, I'm a don now
Like bye-bye, I'm set free
Not on my mind, no lie, you're just a bad
You're just a bad memory

You're just a bad memory

Evil boy, what a shame
You tattooed my name
On your neck like a chain
Time, it heals the pain
Time, it heals the pain
Evil boy, what a shame
You tattooed my name
On your neck like a chain
(Just a bad memory)

Bad, bad, bad memory...
