

Bar Soap

K.Flaj

She said I never live in the moment
That I'm hellbent on staying in motion
Got my eyes seven miles down the road map
So I missed when she asked me to slow dance

But reality feels like it's bar soap
Slipping through my fingertips so fast
I sit here and ask
Why I'm wasting today on tomorrow

The only thing that's real is right now
That's what they say, that's what they say
But God, the future feels so real somehow
That's what they say
The future feels too real

She said I'm always too busy planning
Wondering what's gonna happen
But you know that behavior is classic
Baby, I'm just the child of an addict

So reality feels like it's bar soap
Slipping through my fingertips so fast
I sit here and ask
Why I'm wasting today on tomorrow

Too slippery to hold

The only thing that's real is right now
That's what they say, that's what they say
But God, the future feels so real somehow
That's what they say
The future feels too real

The only thing that's real is right now
Now
Now
God, the future feels so real somehow
Now
Now
The future feels too real
