

So Slow

K.Flay

Bottles on the counter
I've been drownin' out the hours on my own
On my own
Woke up swearin' I've been dreamin'
But it's real, I'm sleepin' all alone
All alone

And it won't stop, killin' me now
Yeah I'm broken, hollowin' out
Just an empty shell of a house
When you're not around
I got poison pumped in my veins
So give me a chance
I can prove, I'm changin' my plans
All for you, I'll wait till it hurts
But the clock, I swear
It don't work

Time is movin' so slow

Like I never met you
I'm in every bedroom, tryin' to forget
To forget
You said something's missin'
That I'm cold and I've been distant then you left
Then you left

And I can't keep fightin' it out
As we fall like dominoes down
Yeah I still keep hearin' the sound
Of your footsteps, just like music, I was stupid
I could be sweet
If you want that, pick up the pieces
Make you come back, wait till it hurts
But the clock, I swear
It don't work

Time is movin' so slow
