

A Beautiful Thing

K'jon

Our love is a beautiful thing
Your love is a beautiful thing
Sometimes the rain ain't never come down
Sometimes the morning dew can make a flower sprout
Right in front of my eyes, she's grown, she's grown
Now she's a pretty rose

She don't know, she don't even know it
She don't even got a clue
Then she got me open, I don't even know what to do
She don't even know it, she don't even got a clue
It's a beautiful thing
That's why I'm feeling you, I'm feeling you, I'm feeling you
I'm feeling you, I'm feeling you, I'm feeling you

Yeah it's a beautiful thing and that's why I'm feeling you
Sunrise perfect with your skin
Some days I feel like I'm dreaming
Girl, it's heaven like a Northern sky
[?], she's a butterfly
Fly, fly away with me
Baby I, I, I'm so serious
In love with you, girl
You are all my world
Just like the rose, so beautiful

She don't know, she don't even know it
She don't even got a clue
Then she got me open, I don't even know what to do
She don't even know it, she don't even got a clue
It's a beautiful thing
That's why I'm feeling you, I'm feeling you, I'm feeling you
I'm feeling you, I'm feeling you, I'm feeling you
