Cause every tune that I'm making is a big hit
You fucking with the click, then you gonna get a big clip
And if you're on a suspect's hit list
Class yourself as unfinished business
Cause man I'll finish up that business in due time
In due time It's due to get very grime
Cause I can feel it in the air like Sigel
It feels dark and it feels very evil
Yo people, lookout for your people
Cause man will swoop on them cunts like an Eagle
For now, just bounce to the beat
And if you really want, then roll an ounce to the beat
Nigga, you better bounce to the beat and if you don't
Then man'll make you bounce from the heat

Won't regret that, Forget that, bust it at his crew
When you get back, kick back and watch it on the news

Roughnecks catch a man, while he's lingering
Shots catch a man, have his whole frame tingling
Koke is a don, couldn't care what you think of him
There's the whole my trigger finger's in
Please understand the shots are not tryna tickle him
I hope you're listening, these shots ain't missing him
Got nothing to lose, not a pot that I'm pissing in
So leave your bits if it's Bridge that you're visiting
Cause this knife will have you on the stop pivoting
Cause we're giving him stabs to the leg
