

I Cheat

K. Michelle

I used to want a fairy tale, feel them calling me Princess K. Michelle
A kingdom palace castle on the hill, but happily ever after will always fail
When the groom wants to slay, not a demon nor a dragon, but different hoes every day
And my loyalty to a fuck nigga, no, that just don't suit me well

Took my heart off the shelf, did what I had to do to save what's left
I'm gon' get you 'fore you get me, made a promise to myself
That's why I cheat with no remorse
It's not my fault, you left me with no choice

Been cheated on so much, it's no surprise what I've become
I'll always have more than one, whoa
Now I don't give a fuck, I'll never give too much of me
'Cause my heart don't beat, that's why I cheat
That's why I cheat

Oh, they don't make them like Grandpa anymore, what the hell am I faithful for?
The only way that I feel safe is making sure that you can be replaced
'Cause what you don't do, I know a couple of them that will Always keep me a roster, every position filled

Took my heart off the shelf, did what I had to do to save what's left
I'm gon' get you 'fore you get me, made a promise to myself
That's why I cheat with no remorse
It's not my fault, you left me with no choice

Been cheated on so much, it's no surprise what I've become
I'll always have more than one, whoa
Now I don't give a fuck, I'll never give too much of me
'Cause my heart don't beat, that's why I cheat
That's why I cheat

Don't act like you ain't do me the same, don't get mad 'cause I'm better at this game
A man could never handle a woman's pain, usually 'cause we ain't built the same
But I'll do you dirty, look straight in your face and lie
If you knew the truth, boy, you would cry
Oh, that's why I cheat

Been cheated on so much, ain't no surprise what I've become
I'll always have more than one, whoa
Now I don't give a fuck, I'll never give too much of me
'Cause my heart don't beat, that's why I cheat
That's why I cheat
