

Only One

K. Michelle

Maybe a little rough around the edges
Sometimes I talk before I speak
Might tend to get a little hellish
When I don't get the time I need
And you know better than to treat me like the last man
When I question, better tell me where that ass been
'Fore you make flip out like this shit gymnastics
Niggas be cappin'

Don't make me do the shit you like
We fuck and fight 'cause that's your type
I curse you out, you think I'm foolish
Can't figure out, why do we do this?
I can't spend a day without ya
Need you here with me
It's so good but it's so bad
Shit is unhealthy, yeah

You're the only one who never judges me
You're the only one, get to see what they don't see
You're the only one, one thing that's guaranteed
And as toxic as I can be
You love the shit out of me
You love the shit out of me

You know the realist bitches come from the hood, it's understood
And I know you wouldn't change it if you could That's the reason why you love me, and you should Whisky and a lobster, yeah, you know we livin' good
Bitches be fishin', I don't let 'em off the hook
Family in our business 'cause they never understood

Don't make me do the shit you like
We fuck and fight 'cause that's your type
I curse you out, you call me foolish
Can't figure out, why do we do this?
I can't spend a day without ya
Need you here with me
It's so good but it's so bad
Shit is unhealthy

You're the only one who never judges me
You're the only one, get to see what they don't see
You're the only one, one thing that's guaranteed
And as toxic as I can be
You love the shit out of me

I know sometimes I can be a bit much
But I'm really sad 'cause I need more of your love
If I lost my sight, it's still obvious to see
That you love the shit out of me

You're the only one who never judges me
You're the only one, get to see what they don't see
You're the only one, one thing that's guaranteed
And as toxic as I can be
You love the shit out of me

Whoa, you love the shit out of me
You love the shit out of me
