Run Don't Walk

K. Michelle

You were the match, I was a flame
Why'd we let it burn out?
Two hearts speedin' got the same
Time, but look at us now!
Sayin' things we didn't mean
Paved the way to broken dreams
Never meant for you to leave
Don't let this be your story
Take it from me

Run, don't walk, to the one that you love
Tomorrow isn't promised, whoever said it was
Oh, run, don't walk, don't you dare look behind
We only get one chance to make it right
So run, so run
So run, so...

Remember when we laid upon
Sharin' secrets that
Nobody else would ever know
But look how it unfolds
Hurt each other just the same
Both refuse to take the blame
Never meant for you to leave
You don't want my misery
Take it from me, yeah

Run, don't walk, to the one that you love
Tomorrow isn't promised, whoever said it was
Oh, run, don't walk, don't you dare look behind
We only get one chance to make it right
So run, so run
So run, so...

Underneath the ugly lights
We had somethin' so beautiful that no one else could touch
Never predicted our demise
If I had one more 'gain, I would run
Ohhh run
So run
Oh run

So run, don't walk, to the one that you love
Tomorrow isn't promised, whoever said it was
Oh, run, don't walk, don't you dare look behind
We only get one chance to make it right
So run, run, run
So run, run, run
So run, run, run
So run
So run, run, run
So run, run, run
So run, run, run
So run
So run
