

Sleep Like a Baby

K. Michelle

I wish I could act like everything is fine
But forgiveness is gonna take me some time
Pillow soaked every night, this bed is a sinking boat
How can I keep it afloat?

Should I wake you up and let you know I'm breaking every night?
While you sleep like a baby, ooh oh
While you sleep like a baby, ooh oh
I'm angry inside, so many nights as I lay by your side
While you sleep like a baby, oh
While you sleep like a baby, ye-yeah

Let me calm down,
And try to close my eyes
I can't believe you
You shared what's mine
Laying underneath you
I know she slept good
Can't get no shut eye
Maybe I should try counting your lies

Should I wake you up and let you know I'm breaking every night?
While you sleep like a baby, ooh oh
While you sleep like a baby, ooh oh
I'm angry inside, so many nights as I lay by your side
And you sleep like a baby, oh
And you sleep like a baby, ye-yeah

You should be in this bed alone,
Oh oh
You should be in this bed all alone

Should I wake you up and let you know I'm breaking every night?
While you sleep like a baby, ooh oh
While you sleep like a baby, ooh oh
I'm angry inside, so many nights as I lay by your side
And you sleep like a baby, oh
While you sleep like a baby, ye-yeah
