

EUREKA!

k-os

I'm so ugly
But you still love me
Feels so good
Cause you just don't care
The whole world owes me
And no one knows me
I'm stealin' your heart
So throw your hands
In the air

Every day
I wake up
And I just can't figure
Why you took a chance
Why you held my hand
Showed me how to dance
Hey! And I'm sprung on you
Every single day
I will call your name
Singin tra - la la la - lah lah
Someone help me out
I don't have a doubt
Na na na - na na na na - nah nah

I'm so ugly
But you still love me
Feels so good
Cause you just don't care
The whole world owes me
And no one knows me
I'm stealin' your heart
So throw your hands
In the air

Every night
You're the star
And the sky keeps falling
I'm barking at the moon
It's dark and I'm the groom
I'm starting to assume
Hey! And I'm drunk on you
Every one can tell
It's like you cast a spell
Singin tra - la la la - lah lah
Someone help me out
I don't have a doubt
Na na na - na na na na - nah nah

I'm so ugly
But you still love me
Feels so good
Cause you just don't care
The whole world owes me
And no one knows me
I'm stealin' your heart
So throw your hands
In the air

So throw your hands
In the air
So throw your hands
In the air

3 am to the early morning
And you won't pick up
My anxiety's peaking
All these dudes yeah you
They boring
But the heavens open up
When you and I are freakin'
I'll never give you up
Even though you keep
Screwin' around
So when my time is up
You know I'll be wearing the crown!

I'm so ugly
But you still love me
Feels so good
Cause you just don't care
The whole world owes me
And no one knows me
I'm stealin' your heart
So throw your hands
In the air

I'm so ugly
But you still love me
Feels so good
Cause you just don't care
The whole world owes me
And no one knows me
I'm stealin' your heart
So throw your hands
In the air
Throw your hands
In the air
