

Evelyn you fought so hard
But the world you're in has taken you apart
It's the heroin of loneliness
And not a single moment to fall back on
It'll take it's toll and you are no exception to the rule
Evelyn you're not a fool

Did you make a plan and set your sights
It's not your fault you did everything right
But the heroin of loneliness and not a single moment to fall back on
It will take it's toll and you are no exception to the rule
Evelyn you're not a fool

Evelyn if you knew love
Our hope and warmths you're soul apart
Our hope and warmths you're soul
Our hope and warmths you're soul
Our hope and warmths you're soul
