

I Was Wrong About Everything

K's Choice

I was wrong about everything
I messed up big on a lot of things
But mostly I was very wrong about you

I was wrong about good and bad
I shouldn't have cared when I got fat
But I still don't think I should have ever been with you

Alright alright
It's hard to get it right
Alright alright
It's not all black and white

It doesn't matter in the end
But I should have listened when I had the chance
I was busy falling hard for you

I could have kept my longer hair
And never tried men's underwear
But it's such a shame that I wasted time with you

Alright alright
It's hard to get it right
Alright alright
It's not all black and white, I was wrong

It doesn't help to have regret and think about you in my bed
So I'm moving on, I got better things to do
And maybe having done all that, I'll be ready for the road ahead
So in a way I'm happy thanks to you

Alright alright
It's hard to get it right
Alright alright
It's not all black and white

Alright alright
It's hard to get it right
Alright alright
It's not all black and white, I was wrong
