Boss up and they make you feel weird like you done all wrong
Cah the things you thought were cool back then, you ain't done in long
Good change and nobody claps, do suttin' proper and nobody chats
Ten steps back, now everyone's haps', one foot out, now everyone's mad
Couldn't get my head round
It was more love when me and bro brought that shotty and ding-dong ped out
It's hype that gets you liked
Found myself on the wing and found out it's hype that will get you life
Same man adding fuel to the flame
They ain't ever came, or sent no kites
It was me at night, by myself and some nightmares
Letter from mum said she wishes I was right here
There with the fam, you won't never understand
I can't hear from them man but that's part of the game
Make me go to waste is a part I can't play
'Cause I'ma let a lot down if I stop now
Used to scrape the bottom of the 'rex, now a niggas near the top now
Only right I gotta keep going
I can see the hate in their face, pray it keeps showing
My niggas in the T with a key, pray it keeps snowing
Cah that's the only thing that's keeping 'em good
My other nigga said the system ain't treatin' him good

It's a shame they love you more when nuttin's going on
And only wanna know when suttin's gone wrong
Rock with me, no matter what, if it's really real
And if it's not that, tell me how you really feel
How you gonna look at change like a bad thing?
Breaking out of shit we were trapped in
Do it for the future 'cause I can't be a has-been
Now the plane's landing and I ain't on a landing

Was only young when Trident done home visits
Went on the run, they caught bro with the smoke on him
Mum bare gobsmacked, said you got the wrong man
No way on earth that my son could've done that
Fast forward, wanted by the undies in the dark Fords
Now I'm on a twos and they're telling me "last call"
And free my nigga Rum, it was pain when we last talked
Free the whole team, even man I don't speak to or don't see
Like twenty man plus, man it's so peak
I know man think I changed or I switched up
But if you think that then you don't know me, I'm still me
I'm just on straight path, fake yutes angry at me cah they ate last
Like I took the quick way, when? Tell me which day
I was in the kitch' with a fork 'till my wrist ached
I was on the block bro, countless times that I lost hope
Whipped first time and I lost snow
But it's how the game goes, you live and you learn
Observe, now I put bricks on the curb

It's a shame they love you more when nuttin's going on
And only wanna know when suttin's gone wrong
Rock with me, no matter what, if it's really real
And if it's not that, tell me how you really feel
