

Stay Down

K-Trap

It gets hard when you're out by yourself when the grass is high
And you don't even see you all the snakes that's passing by Always keep two eyes open
Steady playing with these keys tryna figure out what door that they might open
Who knows only time will tell
Sometimes I think I need to find a girl, but I can't even find myself
Because everybody needs a queen or a sugar that's just there for them
Someone that actually cares for them
I need me a classy one
A one that sees me with a fat stack of cash and she don't even ask for none
Cus she got her own bread, and when we're both running to the money we can pattern up with no stress
She hate it that I'm popular and at night time she wakes up pissed cause they're ringing up my Nokia
But that's what happens when it really pays, Central for them dinner dates
His and hers with them foreign cars

I ain't always asked 'cause when the money calls I owe, so baby stay down when I'm not around
And I swear I care so make sure you play your role, and baby stay down when I'm not around
Cause baby I'm just fucked up as you I know
They seem to see eye to eye when we blow
Os in the air if I stall when it's just me and you and there's no one else up in my zone
I ain't always asked 'cause when the money comes I owe, so baby stay down when I'm not around

She wants me to never leave the game but to tell the truth if I went broke I know things wouldn't be the same
And I know you know yourself
That's no more sweet little dates no more 2 hundred Gs on a steak
Cah I see even though God willing, it's hard to picture me day I ain't got a Pyrex bowl in the pot whipping
It's only so long you can dodge prison that's why you gotta stay who gon pattern up if I get locked away?
Who gon' clear the flat before the feds come by?
And keep the phones on to make sure these pebs gon' fly?
You don't respect that life, I know you don't I don't expect you too
But if racks fell that's the only way to get me through
I wanna live that sweet couple life, sleeping in my arms but you can't cause this phone's got me up at night
I still compliments on your hair but I wouldn't know cause I ain't always there

I ain't always asked 'cause when the money calls I owe, so baby stay down when I'm not around
And I swear I care so make sure you play your role, and baby stay down when I'm not around

Cause baby I'm just fucked up as you I know
They seem to see eye to eye when we blow
Os in the air if I stall when it's just me and you and there's no one else up in my zone
I ain't always asked 'cause when the money comes I owe, so baby stay down when I'm not around

Baby stay down

Stay down

I ain't always there but I swear I care yea

I ain't always there but I swear I care yea

I ain't always there

And I'm fucked up like you would know whoh whoh oh

I ain't always there but I swear I care yea
