

All By Myself

K.A.A.N.

Ehh

Knowledge
All by myself
Yea
All by myself, all by myself
Ehh
All by myself, all by my-
Huh
Did that shit all by myself
Ehh
I found a way to survive, did that shit all by myself
Ehh
I found a way I could move, did that shit all by myself
It's still motherfucking me, these niggas don't wanna help then I do this shit all by myself, do it all by myself

Get up in the game and I kill it, make 'em bounce to all my shit, my shit
You ain't never met another nigga like me, make 'em bounce to all my shit, my shit
They can call it what they want, but shit, it better correct, I make 'em bounce to all my shit
And if I do what the fuck that I gotta do to prove that I can be the greatest, I make 'em bounce to all my shit
And if I hit 'em with the flow, I bet that I can make 'em move
Playin' my position, let a nigga keep it cool
I'mma tell the truth and everything I say is smooth
Feel like I don't have a single thing that I can lose
But I'm bending corners like I'm riding in a '64, I'll probably make 'em bounce to all my shit
But I'mma give 'em what the fuck they wanna hear from my perspective is the real, I make 'em bounce to all my shit

I've been a nigga from the jump, I gotta start the camera late
Never hesitate, I regulate, there's no debate
Take it to the back, I let the motherfucker faint Master of the craft and my abilities to 'splay
Who the fuck is you, these people talk about the challenger to knock me out my spot or position
You need to apply for a year
You better offer the bigger barricade to bury your body and bullets burnin' your flesh with these rapid-fire attempts
When I spit it I'm like automatic rapper, savagely eye damaged, detrimental aesthetic
Step inside of my mind but I'm minor to negativity to get the message out but we doin' it expeditiously
A whole nother level of attention to detail, I see hell and clean swells, I mean well
When the [?], then I'm relying on your reciprocity
Follow the path as I and I personally design it I'll find that I'm lost with no direction inside, my plights become real
I write what I feel, I'd like to invite the vain to vacate
My pain is profound, I pray I don't drown
I'm pressing my luck, repressed to find love, impress you I does
This professional is poised, I progress, with passion perfects
The price to convince this victim will win
