

Antidope

K.A.A.N.

Lately I haven't been sleeping
I'm terrified that I'm falling off
I've been secluded ashamed that I've lost it forgiving myself is done the te st
Now I'm revising the vision
Slow down the rhythm Its easy to listen but fuck your opinion I've heard it before
I'm a force to be reckon with wreck that resonate
Running like Ricky right into the alley
Allow me to make the proper introduction I

I couldn't stop if I tried
I couldn't stop if I tried
Boy that no lie

I couldn't stop if I tried
I couldn't stop if I tried
Boy that no lie

I couldn't stop if I tried
I couldn't stop if I tried
Boy that no lie

I couldn't stop if I tried
I couldn't stop if I tried
Boy that no lie

I couldn't stop if I tried
I couldn't stop if I tried
Boy that no lie

I
See that nigga working with intentions to get it when I speak it into existe nce and I make it into reality now bounce Don't feel the energy I'm in a meager mode and needed more that what I've be en given and lemme talk
I ain't never been repetitive I beat up the cadence I can't believe these mo therfuckers got nerve
This shits absurd
Boy you should watch and observe
Pay attention you could learn
I think its crazy
They told me about life
All the shit I should love
All the things I should like
Even what I should do but it's just for materials
Nothing that's gonna solve all my problems
See I still be lonely searching for acceptance
My random repentance is past do
I'm indebted and high been that and been back
Don't relax just relapse on releasing verses that kept you attentive
Taking your time to dissect every sentence
I document daily with devious dialogue
This time ain't different I definitely am with no misinterpretation tell em bring the base in
My shit never basic
Some might say abrasive

Overbearing baritone with a chip on my shoulder I carry that Sacrificing I feeling like Makavelli
See I want the rose and then go herringbone
Cause apparently you the reason that's your own
Not the life that you dedicated toward the art
I put ten thousand hours inside of the craft
Lawd

My shit the illest
I bring it back and then kill it
I bring it back and then kill it

My shit the illest
I bring it back and then kill it
I bring it back and then kill it

My shit the illest
I bring it back and then kill it
I bring it back and then kill it

My shit the illest
I bring it back and then kill it
I bring it back and then kill it

My shit the illest
I bring it back and then kill it
I bring it back and then kill it

My shit the illest
I bring it back and then kill it
I bring it back and then kill it

My shit the illest
I bring it back and then kill it
I bring it back and then kill it

I'm
Back in this bitch with an attitude
I need the recognition I'm not given
These talent-less artists are all over hyped
My foresight is intact I'm correct my intent is to take what I want but I leave no remains
The main objective I suggest that you practice
Prepare for the passion
The slaughter like behind the martyrs whose moral compass misconstrued for the rhetoric
Take my time
Tried to terrorize
I tell of traumatizing tell of trepidation fails
And I cannot excel
The hatred I expel is exponential very detrimental
In a sense what I was but this time has passed
Now I'm power hungry hurry hustle harder
I'll hold onto faith I have yet to obtain I'm a terrible tyrant this tower is terrific
Hit you with the symbolic synonym
Put the venom in
Sweetened sugar is in enemy is want another round
As I expend the mood and dispend that's expenditure
That's in a couple of minutes
I've been accustomed to killing
Every track that I speak on
I lead you back to the promise land as I demand the manor

I operate is immaculate
My imagination has made me very uneasy
I want the antidote to cope with something that I can believe
I achieve the amount of success
Acquiring inner peace but in abundance
Something that's soothing in silence the pain I cannot continue to feel mentally drained I respond on my theory when I know you're ready
And I know you're ready

I'm working hard to obtain
I'm working hard to obtain
And I need this shit now
I'm working hard but I need this shit now
I'm working hard but I need this shit now
I'm working hard but I need this shit now
Need this shit now, Lawd

I'm working hard to obtain
I'm working hard to obtain
And I need this shit now

I'm working hard to obtain
I'm working hard to obtain
And I need this shit now
I'm working hard but I need this shit now
I'm working hard but I need this shit now
I'm working hard but I need this shit now
Need this shit now, Lawd
