Ye-yeah, lawd
Uh-huh Knowledge, nigga

They want my heart
They want my soul
They want my life
But nigga I won't go
No I won't move, no I won't budge
I won't move, no I won't budge
They want my heart
They want my soul
They want my life
But nigga I won't fall

I'm exactly where I need to be
I've reaped what I've sown
The pain intensified inside my mind for reasons unknown
I can rewrite a whole song but still can't rewrite my wrongs
The verdict's out on me, I'm bound to be reclusive as fuck
Like Orson Welles, I told the tale that's too crazy to be true
Could lead my people 'cross the desert like Moses did Hebrews
But who in the fuck can I trust, I'm in this game with no love
They'll take the dagger out ya back, then place a larger one in Ulterior motives, surrounded by these politicians
With crooked veneers, facetious grins and smirks from afar
It's all a facade, no loyalty, these niggas is Scar
Would drop they brother off a cliff into a stampede [?]

They want my heart
They want my soul
They want my life
But nigga I won't go
No I won't move, no I won't budge
I won't move, no I won't budge
They want my heart
They want my soul
They want my life
But nigga I won't fall, no
