I told 'em I maintain, in the same lane, on the road to my legacy
I broke into the main frame, cut the power off, taking all of the energy
Ima ride 'til the wheels fall, and the gears stall, but they still gon' remember me
I could see through the signs now, writing's on the wall, they got to call it telepathy
Fortified, intact, the flow is a masterpiece
I adapted to the game with a strategy
Taking off, I do not live in this galaxy
Manifested every moment meticulously
Dissecting every single beat
Operation I perform with the pen
I been documenting how we living in sin
Know it's augmented, this reality is
I am hard headed, I will battle the field
Take the picture, let them see that it's real
Photosynthesis I wanted to build, it go straight from the concrete to the ceiling
I'm making 'em lock eyes with the villain
I'm feeling my blood boil like a killer
I'm King Kong to Magilla Gorillas
I'm good in the clutch, I feel like Reggie Miller

I made a call like a dispatch
Feel like I lost it, I relapse
I cannot run with the riff-raff
I gotta stay on my own path
Elevated to a level above
I'll live forever, they could keep the buzz
Dynasty, the only thing that I want
Make it happen, I've been getting it done

I made a call like a dispatch
Feel like I lost it, I relapse
I cannot run with the riff-raff
I gotta stay on my own path
Elevated to a level above
I'll live forever, they could keep the buzz
Dynasty, the only thing that I want
Make it happen, I've been getting it done

I've been pushing the limit tryna make a way
Let them see how I live no it's not [in a state?]
I got too much to lose with too much on my plate
Got a whole lot of steak, I need some mozzarella
The man of the hour, the main motivator
To heat up the room, we need a ventilator
I'm blacking out, look like I play for the Raiders
A different league, my team is in the majors
I still do it all, no assistance
Yeah that's to keep they attention
One of the one's they don't mention

But that's a mistake
I need a big break

I need some big bills
Inside every case
So how does it feel?
And what does it take?
To throw in the towel I cannot relate

I made a call like a dispatch
Feel like I lost it, I relapse
I cannot run with the riff-raff
I gotta stay on my own path
Elevated to a level above
I'll live forever, they could keep the buzz
Dynasty, the only thing that I want
Make it happen, I've been getting it done

I made a call like a dispatch
Feel like I lost it, I relapse
I cannot run with the riff-raff
I gotta stay on my own path
Elevated to a level above
I'll live forever, they could keep the buzz
Dynasty, the only thing that I want
Make it happen, I've been getting it done
