

Fly

K.A.A.N.

You say I should fall off, I should fall off
I came through the front door of my own stuff
My name, what's the hold up, what's the hold up
Say my name, what's my name, they gon' know before I'm done
You say I should fall back, I could never leave
When I am done I guarantee I leave a lasting legacy
There's no way, there's no way, that's what they say to me
I want it all, I want it all, everything they owe me
I let it fly
I let it fly
I let it fly

Gonna take a little bit of time to see to the point
Tell her give me one minute, tell her give me one minute
We the one's that held the gun so we didn't never let it go
When y'all couldn't see the vision, y'all couldn't see the vision
Y'all boys act, tell me y'all boys at
Tell me all talk, no livin', all talk, no livin'
That's a motherfuckin' limit, I could always tell the difference
Between the real and the fake
Ten to ten I'm up, no sleep, don't stop
Broke no more, I do believe, my God
Feelin' like I'm Eazy-E: Ruthless
Buy or sell we will proceed, just trust
Bye and large there's no-one quite like us
You ain't never really brandish it
Boy, you barely even manage it
The flow sick, might damage ya
They man-handle ya
I see you need bandages
Too many songs about trap and the bandos
But you ain't never really seen one, no no no
How many times can they hit you with the "Okie-doke"
Before you see that it's bullshit, oh my God
Good Lord, I'm back, I feel better than ever
Bitch I'm a king, to your never [?]
I took the time to get my shit together
I got through the pain and I'm still here
Y'all been stagnant like stillborns
I been on, and fuck that I'm movin'
Fuck that I'm runnin'
Fuck that I'm sprintin'
Fuck y'all don't listen
Fuck yo' opinion
My attitude has been reckless
I'm knockin' goals off my checklist
You let your life go right past ya
That's something I cannot fathom

You say I should fall off, I should fall off
I came through the front door of my own stuff
My name, what's the hold up, what's the hold up
Say my name, what's my name, they gon' know before I'm done
You say I should fall back, I could never leave
When I am done I guarantee I leave a lasting legacy
There's no way, there's no way, that's what they say to me
I want it all, I want it all, everything they owe me

I let it fly
I let it fly
I let it fly

[?] caution, I'm a Martian
Me and K.A.A.N on some bar shit, no nonsense
Everyday makin' songs, makin' waves constant
Kinda late on the knowledge, get the [?]
Pick your play on some pawn shit
Better rain fast
Bet you ain't killin' like this
Got a lane, swerve and don't wreck
Gotta maintain, no less
Wanna give thanks to the man
Shot a bang bang bang bang full clip
I done made plays no rest
Hundreds in the bank go big
Nothin' but a thing when you wanna go big
Wanna throw fade, wanna throw fists
I expect those by the boatload next
Imma throw show by the po-po's crib
Imma stay woke 'til my old so ends
Imma lay low makin' dope songs hit
Please don't make music for random approval
Just man up and do it, you can like aluminum
I am not rude to them, I can make do with them
Idolize you and them, I don't mind goin' in
By the fall, honor man
Got the ball, shoot it in
Got a dog, better win
Catalogue never ends
I don't at all understand
Got a plan, write it off
Get a pen and jam it down, I'll listen to your innocence

You say I should fall off, I should fall off
I came through the front door of my own stuff
My name, what's the hold up, what's the hold up
Say my name, what's my name, they gon' know before I'm done
You say I should fall back, I could never leave
When I am done I guarantee I leave a lasting legacy
There's no way, there's no way, that's what they say to me
I want it all, I want it all, everything they owe me
I let it fly
I let it fly
I let it fly
