

Free Fall

K.A.A.N.

Team strong, and the dream strong, plus the wind strong
Ringtone, like a seesaw, that's the theme song
Recon, I ain't saying none, niggas senile
Meanwhile, she gon' kneel down, give a nigga crown
Meanwhile, she gon' kneel down, give a nigga crown
Ringtone, like a s-

Why you scared to take a fucking leap?
Shit you weak, I could tell by the way you speak
Your confidence asleep, may it rest in peace
While I'm just getting wins on the fucking queef
Niggas begging for a raft inside these shallow waters
Niggas love to talk about the shit they new into it
In my own HOV don't care 'bout the lane that you in Niggas love to play the post and block like Patrick Ewing
Put 'em behind the wheel, they don't know what the fuck they're doing
Ride for the moment
Go and put a GPS on it
Ride with a nigga for the moment
Lose your keys in the morning
Pull it to the side move with a V on the high - way
Move on, move out
Bullshit travels tri state
And I'm just tryna get ahead of it all, move forward
These niggas are like hitchhikers, where are you going?
No room in the ride I ride, I got a two seater
And that's me and me
They wanna steal my energy like a B&E
Sleeping on me like an air BnB
'Til I explode, TNT
Just when you thought it was the e-n-d
You get x'd out permanently
You should've had the drive
Been ready to ride
You didn't have the time, when you had the time
So
You know what they say
What's mines is mines
The pie don't divide hoe

I free fall for [?] show
What I got to lose? Not a thing at all
Swinging with my back up against the wall
They give up better than I'd ever give a fuck
Oh, now they watching me, yeah
Mm, now they under me, what
Mm, now they fuck with me, huh
Mm, now they loving me, what
Mm, tables turned lessons learned
What you earn, what you learn, what yo-, mm
Wait your turn, wait your turn
For you to burn, I'm not concerned mm (mm)

Team strong, and the dream strong, plus the wind strong (eh)
Ringtone, like a seesaw, that's the theme song (uh-huh)
Recon, I ain't saying none, niggas senile (eh)
Meanwhile, she gon' kneel down, give a nigga crown (eh)

Now this shit getting extensive (yeah)
Elevate a couple inches (ooh)
Raising my standards, taking advantage, collect what they owe me nigga (uh)
Taking these chances, niggas sub-standard, your castle'll fall down quicker
Uh, uh
Going upstream the ravine when them niggas didn't see my vision, it's limitless
Feeling like a nigga can't coexist
Every day tryna maintain, I shoulder shit when they show no interest
Minimalistic view, not misconstrued with all these novices
The road to glory's paved with tainted dreams and broken promises
Everything ain't always what it seems, this dirty game is filled with politics
Taking everything you own this shit knock you out like klonopins
Make a mothafucka switch sides, you kill your pride, and now you swallow dick
Used and abused you out of it
Nothing now, you hollow trick, you shallow bitch
