Niggas ask a lotta questions, act like I don't know 'em (who the fuck are yo u?)
Niggas say they get into it, I ain't even notice (I ain't even notice)
Told 'em they would never catch me on my flying lotus (fly away ho)
Just found out I'm claustrophobic I'ma need space (I'ma need space)
Real short with my conversation these days (the fuck you want nigga?)
I don't trust a soul I'm too paranoid (I don't trust 'em)
I got voices in my head, they make too much noise

To turn your little sad scene into an epic movie
What the fuck you niggas thought it was, oh you ain't understood me
Better get familiar, hope you know just what the fuck you doin'
This shit's a foreign language, hope you niggas speak it fluent
And know exactly who you are before you get influenced
Pain's a potent drug if you take a hit (if you take a hit)
The void of reality it don't exist (no it don't)
Feels like a fuckin' simulation I'm stuck in the glitch

Feelin' like my ride went up and down with no maintenance assistance
But keep it cool, calm down, that's what they insistin'
Couldn't find it had no urgencies in my situation
And I been patiently wait, was I too late for the game?
Am I a victim of fate (if you take a hit) make sure you blow some smoke in t
