Hype, Hype, Hype, Hype, Hype, Hype
I think all that shit is
Hype, Hype, Hype, Hype, Hype, Hype

Treat me like I'm big timer uh, big timer uh
Shining like a big diamond uh, big diamond uh
Tell em that I still got it uh, still got it uh
This shit sound like narcotics uh

Treat me like I'm big timer uh, big timer uh
Shining like a big diamond uh, big diamond uh
Tell em that I still got it uh, still got it uh
This shit sound like narcotics uh
They gon' want some money
Treat me like a-

I was all alone in the sky
Tryna stay high, not knows why
Always been a hell of a ride
Maybe Imma see you in the next life
I don't wanna overstate the obvious
I realize [?] in a lot of us
Where do you run knowing your time is up
When the clock strikes home and you're out of luck
I reach high like angel does
I realize it's a marathon level up
By city signs and the walls that was left for us
From the messengers
Came right back in, to reacquire what I left
You can't fake that I'm tapped in
But I won't tap dance
I don't wanna play the games
Tell them niggas keep the fame
I keep score, Imma need my change
Steady as a [?], while the waves are ragin'
Still amazin'
Tell me tho, who got my back?
Who gon' hold me down [?]?
Why you holdin' back?
Why you runnin' from your life?
What you talkin' 'bout?
I think all that shit is hype
I ain't fuckin' with it

Treat me like I'm big timer uh, big timer uh
Shining like a big diamond uh, big diamond uh
Tell em that I still got it uh, still got it uh
This shit sound like narcotics uh
They gon' want some money
Treat me like I'm big timer uh, big timer uh
Shining like a big diamond uh, big diamond uh
Tell em that I still got it uh, still got it uh
This shit sound like narcotics uh
They gon' want some money
Treat me like a-
