

I Feel Fine

K.A.A.N.

I guess I want it all too bad (bad)
Slow it down, don't move too fast (fast)
This ain't that, and that ain't this
Hell nah, man I hate it when the ideas run dry
Savin' up my money for the lunch line
Try to make a way, it wasn't physical
We stuck together like Siamese individuals
Pursuit of happiness, we avoided the miserable
I bet you wasn't showin' no love, okay
Well I found it
You can feel around us
Give it to the doubters that never knew 'nuff about us
A little bit of cloud and now you actin' like you got it, no way
I been grindin'
Nobody around, no
Started in the basement, the level below the ground floor
We was makin' heat but the way they would treat us, so cold
Talk about the passion, they look at ya like you're loco
Preparation for what? Your fantasy's a fucking no-go
Homie, I could tell you why the caged bird sing
Tryna live my life, that's a Requiem for a Dream
Prerequisite for the love
In need of it like a drug
Take a hit, inhale, exhale, then breathe
Take your time, pace yourself, don't rush, believe
Give it everything I got, I do indeed
Tell me how the fuck do you get in the game, man?
It's just a sentence of level up with the game plan
But may the [?] never change for the fake fame
Take a statement, make a mark, no, leave a legacy
'Cause if I paint I guarantee it's for my own reasons
I just wanna live free, fly high, yes yes
Make a mean metaphor, sigh, hide the [?]
Roll a couple Cigarillos, only smoke with the fam
Everything is alright, thank God I feel fine

So let me show ya
Already told ya
Don't need to wait I came and shown up
My mind to go up
Said I feel great, I feel fine
Yeah, I feel great I feel fine

So let me show ya
Already told ya
Don't need to wait I came and shown up
My mind to go up
Said I feel great, I feel fine
Yeah, I feel great I feel fine

Yeah, lemme know
Lookin' so sweet like a honeycomb
Make it drip like a runny nose
Get my drip like I'm Tokyo
I ain't seen the sun shine
Shine brighter than you
Yeah, runnin' out of time

Fourth quarter down two
You can bite on my dime
Good at ordering, too
I'm a nice type guy, never blowin' my cool
And I got a little change in my pocket
For a date, we can lock it in
Pick a day, any day, got a late night spot
Little audience
Got a smile on your face and I [?]
Girl, you're lovely
Know what love is
Lookin' funny
Know what fun is
Think my heart just skipped like one beat
No alarm need
In the morning
We can have a [?]
Please stay a while, I'm in need of you now
[?] when you smile, and the weed, put it down
You a queen, stay around, Imma make you a crown
No debatin' it now, you're the [?]
Think I won if I tag along
Little one that I battle for
With the one that you can't ignore
Let me show you what you're looking for
Lookin' good baby, shut the door
You got me lifted way high
The one you missin' ain't I
Missin' your kisses in the kitchen after dishes ain't I
You're so delicious, can I
Make you my misses, can I
Fill my prescription with you in it don't leave me on standby

So let me show ya
Already told ya
Don't need to wait I came and shown up
My mind to go up
Said I feel great, I feel fine
Yeah, I feel great I feel fine

So let me show ya
Already told ya
Don't need to wait I came and shown up
My mind to go up
Said I feel great, I feel fine
Yeah, I feel great I feel fine
