Huh

Everybody scared of taking chances to go and get it
That's the way that I feel, that's the way that I feel
But if we never fail, nigga, how can we prevail then Motherfucker that's real, motherfucker that's real Everybody tryna get rich but don't nobody wanna take no fuckin' risks, don't wanna take no fuckin' risks
Nigga, everybody tryna get rich but don't nobody wanna take no fuckin' risks
, don't wanna take no fuckin'-

I'm feelin' lost
Wanna try appeasin'
Pause when I saw a grievance
For the life of me, I'm torn
When I try to see a much better way to do this I'm foolish for actin' selfish
I felt like I had to adjust
Or is it that I'm terrified that I could fail all alone
No one to call, the cost of burning every bridge that I own
I built this wall around myself, now I'm secluded from most
My mind is gone, I'm disillusioned with this life that I live
A seldom few that chose to sacrifice and [?] with the kids
So many say that they down to ride but I can see they fake erroneous claims
I came with nothing but this heart on my sleeve
It's harder to breath or believe that I'm meant to do this I'm definitely in over my head
Repetitive effort, I make something that mesmerize
Creatively in tuned to sources of inspiration
I'm facin' realities truth
I'm 25 with no options, right now I'm running in place
My faith is based in this talent that I am blessed with Pessimistically 'pressive, for a progress is prompted by actions with no per mission
I'm spiritually consumed, I don't want for worldly possessions
I'm prayin' for peace of mind, it's as precious as blood diamonds
I defy with my effort, effectively I articulate the way that I intend to inf use
Lyrical structure with melodic symphonies to amuse
Another language to communicate my seminal views
Or how we living and maintain through the evils we see Idiosyncrasies synchronize with an ignorant tongue
As dope as they come, I ask for nothing but attention from some [?] I'm prepared for the rise
Searchin' for hope, it's hard to cope, you see the pain my eyes
A constant reminder that complacency can only bring me closer to death
But they don't relate, it's like my words are falling on deaf ears Dearly departed, disregard every fear that I had

Huh

Killing the function
Why would you bring in assumptions
Some of the shit that I see is egregious
Giving the real and nobody believe it
Please pay attention to me and my thesis
What I'm releasing
Way that I'm speaking
Better than most of these motherfuckers, man I try to tell 'em time and time again
All that I wanted was happiness
Couldn't find it through this rapping shit
Visualize and imagine it
Try to attain but I still fail
Losing my mind, I don't feel well
These are regrets that I live with All of these people are superficial, man I'm tryna get over some real shit
