

Last Thing

K.A.A.N.

Uh-huh, yeah, lawd
Knowledge, nigga
Ah, uh-huh, Lawd

See I can tell you what it look like
Said it for my seed about to take off
I'm hoping all this hard work pay off
I never took a day off
I was mis-indedicated with a pen and a pad and I paint a picture of a peon
I never been considered
Considering I don't see death
A bunch of people change but fuck it I don't need 'em
See my mind is on another level, elevated thinking
I can tell you why the caged bird sings and we ain't free
Or why the well runs dry when we need water
That's just the way the world works, what I've been told
Gotta lotta intel, little bit of info
Young Bobby still with the pen and I been a leader
Not a liter like a unit of measurement
Unifier of many
Man my melodic mediation's amazing, I know you feel it
My forensic lyricism is stubborn, my shit is heard
From a quarter in the burbs to overseas, you feel me?

Life's a game I play for keeps
So please believe and tell me what you want, want
I'm back up in this, far from finished
I can tell the people what I want, want
A bit of peace, no recognition please, that's the last thing that I want, want
A bit of peace, no recognition please, that's the last thing that I-
I used to write these raps until my eyes closed, oh lawd
Now I'm meditating with my mind gone, oh lawd
Don't hesitate, just tell me what you want
Don't hesitate, just tell me what you want
Don't hesitate, just tell me what you want
Don't hesitate, just tell me what you-

I heard the world is going in the hell in the hand basket
I heard the idol's hands is like the devil playground
I heard that most people are evil but that ain't true
I heard that you should always try to find the silver-lining
Well I've been searching for a minute but I can't find it
Feeling like a minuscule minnow in these shallow waters
I hope the Lord ain't bring me this far to leave me here
But I survive regardless, I think I could live forever
Am I getting through to you, my message is unusual
It's crucial that you pay attention now, now
The words that I can speak they were written by a man
That was multi-piece but never figure that shit out, out
Like I can see the future, I control the world around me
It's a blessing I can live without the doubt, doubt
Like fuck the confirmation and the affiliations
I don't need a co-sign to shut this shit down

Life's a game I play for keeps
So please believe and tell me what you want, want

I'm back up in this, far from finished
I can tell the people what I want, want
A bit of peace, no recognition please, that's the last thing that I want, want
A bit of peace, no recognition please, that's the last thing that I-
I used to write these raps until my eyes closed, oh lawd
Now I'm meditating with my mind gone, oh lawd
Don't hesitate, just tell me what you want
Don't hesitate, just tell me what you want
Don't hesitate, just tell me what you want
Don't hesitate, just tell me what you-
