

Let Me Live My Life

K.A.A.N.

Actin' like a know-it-all
Save it never blow it all
Catch me on a lonely wave
Probably gonna blow you off
Second chance to get it right
Why you on my ass? Let me live my life
Let me live my life

Who got the goods?
Who got the fame?
Who got the looks?
Who got the change?
Put it in my cup right now for the love before it's too late
I'll call it a day I ain't even tripping
Used to feel envy
Was a good kid like Kung Fu Kenny
I was raised in the town but I came up in the city
So I had the whole state on my wave rocking with me
I'm the one who did it but they never hand credit
If a move was being made I bet I had my hand in it
Now the second wave is comin' like a fucking pandemic
Was the man with it and I'm getting back to it
Comin' to you live from the belly of the beast
Where they never lie they just tell it how it is
Baby on my side she been telling me to leap
Had a bad day now she got me feeling peaceful
Eat, eat, amoke and I'm way up
Can't take off 'cause I can't take a pay cut
Good with God so I don't need a favor
But the Devil works hard so you know I stay prayed up
That's just life in the limelight
People give advice while they stuck on the sidelines
Yeah your stars might align but you still gotta like life, right?

Actin' like a know-it-all
Save it never blow it all
Catch me on a lonely wave
Probably gonna blow you off
Second chance to get it right
Why you on my ass? Let me live my life
Let me live my life

Been difficult
I'm on the road to the pinnacle
I been dealing with the snakes in the grass get 'em off my path, they were making me cynical
Chopping heads off serpents, lurking
Lord knows I've been working, searching
Still operatin' off the truth
I got faith in the things we do
I got enough to make a mountain move
Can't blend with the rest I create the groove
So if it wasn't meant for me
The shit was never meant to be
I'm tapped in, it's extensively
I'm only focused on the business, the L.L.C
I never envy the shit that they show to see

I know it's much more than meets the eye
I'm in control of the ride
The only currency we have is time
I can't clock out, I can't give you mine
Until the day I die
My head up high
Ain't got no complaints if I'm still alive
The feeling of success well that's how I thrive
It's what I fear, it fuels my drive
And I been running off of premium
I'm in my lane not the median
I'm still on like a TV is
Hit the lights, let them see this shit
A method to the madness how a genius live
This shit my passion
Had to get it all
Can't imagine
Ima need it all
Ain't relaxing
Had to get it all
For my faction
Ima need it all

Actin' like a know-it-all
Save it never blow it all
Catch me on a lonely wave
Probably gonna blow you off
Second chance to get it right
Why you on my ass? Let me live my life
Let me live my life
