

Light Blue

K.A.A.N.

Oh how can it be?
I keep falling for you
Gave you all of me
You don't even want me
I can't fall asleep
I still hear you calling
Voices haunting me

Everything, it look light blue
Light blue, light blue
Everything, it look light blue
Light blue, light blue
Everything, it look light

Gone, I'm lost at sea
Stranded on this island
Won't you rescue me?
Someone send a pilot
All alone again
Feel like I can't fight it
You're my only friend

Light blue, light blue
Everything, it look light blue
Light blue, light blue
Everything, it look light blue
