

Long Road

K.A.A.N.

I'm feeling, big time
Highroller looking for a, big shine
Can I get the light before I go out?
Can I get the light before I go out?
Can I get the light before I, burn out
Heavy is the head that wears the, big crown
Tryna tread this water hope I, don't drown
Can I get some love before I go out?
Can I get some love before

Hit the open road, Danny Glover by my side
This shit like Lethal Weapon 2, [?] brothers
Through these shades [?]
I got liquor in my liver, washing down these bitter truths
It might send me through the roof too
Pass out from this [?], a reject with true [?]
But none the less Im still obsessed
I write lines like a printing press
A prestige in the perfect sense
Pristine with the verses, yeah
Shit I'm immersed in this Regularly I'm rehearsing with the same tone I'm conversing with
It's merciless, it got me here

I'm feeling, big time
Highroller looking for a, big shine
Can I get the light before I go out?
Can I get the light before I go out?
Can I get the light before I, burn out
Heavy is the head that wears the, big crown
Tryna tread this water hope I, don't drown
Can I get some love before I go out?
Can I get some love before

Fade to black, feinted death
Take what's mine, let these motherfuckers keep the rest
I'm a novelist, with new chapters for novices
Life turned me to an optimist, had to crack the code
Break it down so the game exposed, a living example I suppose
So which route you chose, hope your exit ain't closed
Had to pick a route to go, way I'm walking the destination
I'm a little bit off of the reservation
The epitome of high, you can find me spacious Elevated upper ground to eclipse an anchor
Avoid quicksand, setbacks and hangups
Stuck to the plan, nigga I can't change up
Never rearrange with the strangers
Accepting of the inherent dangers

I'm feeling, big time
Big shine
Can I get the light before I go out?
Can I get the light before I go out?
Can I get the light before I, burn out
Big crown
Don't drown
Can I get some love before I go out?

Can I get some love before
