

Lost Kings

K.A.A.N.

Eh, eh eh
Uh huh
Knowledge

I spit the realest shit for eons, through death and beyond
The way that I sound, this is my preference
Ain't much to reference
Been using these paragraphs as weapons to gain what I want
This shit's a game and if I play, I choose to be player one
I've never been outdone
This shit is a marathon, I'll never be outrun
My nigga, been givin' 'em hell, tryin' to excel and propel
Ain't hard to tell that we been floatin' while the waters are swelled
They want us to fall from where we at to see us falter and fail
But nevertheless, I been at my best
Materializing all of my wealth
I'm building my mind, body and my spirit
A genuine change, nigga I can feel it
I been in the dark spaces of my mind
In the wrong place at the right time
When it's your time then it's your time
But until then I'ma go hard, god

I guess the streets did claim him
Yeah we call him just a lost King
Though he's playing in a bad way
[?] or the young boy is never gonna win, see
I guess the streets did claim him
Yeah we call him just a lost King
Though he's playing in a bad way
[?] or the young boy is never gonna

I'm rollin' a couple for my sanity, that positive energy
Relievin' my mind, my inner chi
Spiritually I do believe
Niggas have risen from the prisons, we are now finally free
I just invested in myself because I do believe in me
My LLC's are supercedin', seedy scene
The cynics and the fiends, the new regime
Livin' La Vida Loca for the illest cream
Bitch I could do this with my eyes closed like I'm in a dream, what you mean
Niggas don't want half, I need everything, all of it
Equal with opportunity, no bias in my parliament
We strippin' you of your jewelry, your pride, even your common sense
You either stand for something or you contradict
You either in the way or you could get the fuck up outta here, ah

I guess the streets did claim him
Yeah we call him just a lost King
Though he's playing in a bad way
[?] or the young boy is never gonna win, see
I guess the streets did claim him
Yeah we call him just a lost King
Though he's playing in a bad way
[?] or the young boy is never gonna win, see
