

No Rest

K.A.A.N.

Yes Lawd. Knowledge. Nigga. Uh-huh. Uh-huh
Eh. Lawd. Uh-huh. Lawd. Knowledge nigga

And this as good as it gets, you couldn't find none better
I give the necessary efforts legendary forever
I said you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah
I bet you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah

And this as good as it gets, you couldn't find none better
I give the necessary efforts legendary forever
I said you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah
I bet you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah

I knock down doors with tempos
Blowing minds with wisdom
Spit sporadic my syndrome
I'm on pace with the metronome
Medellin of the terror
No mezzanine that I call my home
All alone lost a lotta flows
More respect for the honorable
I perfect and I'm comatose
Allocate my intentions
I'm tempted, poised to procrastinate
Grip the pen as I lacerate
Languages led to secrecy
You decipher my frequency
Frequently feeling incomplete
Incidentally interesting, listen
I'm dropping hidden gems
And hymns to sing
I pray for release
Amazing, my grace could be but basically
I bask in the past, reliving memories and Scenarios of pain that I had
I paint a picture, be attentive as I deliver
The funkiness tentative, irrelevant
The fact you fuck with the boy
His intelligence is off the charts
I choke and strangle the beat
Believe I'm a doper contender
Flows I contest with, it's best to put down
Your bets as I bless the track with my presence
Present perfection I paraphrase my life in a verse
Asserting a flavor, save and savor salivate for the sound
I solidify with every rhyme, relay relatable tales, I'm sure
To succeed and supersede, I see the scenic route
It's comfortable. I disappear and sacrifice for more
Than 'bout a month or two Undermining the pressure I'm under
I'm wondering when are you giving a break? A literal taste
A piece of the mind that I feel like I'm missing
You know I got more, the minimal score, the average shit I abhor, I better a llure
Giving the realness of legacies better be mentally apt I'm focused and never distracted
Forgetting the past, ahh, can I relax? I, breathe in like 'Woosah'

Do it a few times, spitting the sickest of melodies, measure a man by his actions
I assess and attack
I'm calculated pathologically, plead for pastors to pray for me
Patiently wait for pardons apart from problems
I promise and I practice proper penmanship
Emphasis on your excellence, exiting esoterically, enter super sarcastically
Drastically change your outlook, savagely slay the preconceived
The notion I notify its a note of notoriety
Vast amount of perspectives, I vindicate with variety
I subject you to energy only felt by enlightened minds
In light of situations with serious repercussions
I operate, plan in silence, no need for any opinion
My vision's one of precision, persistence is paying off
I'm resilient but to a fault, I will not be taking a loss

And this as good as it gets, you couldn't find none better
I give the necessary efforts legendary forever
I said you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah
I bet you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah

And this as good as it gets, you couldn't find none better
I give the necessary efforts legendary forever
I said you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah
I bet you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah

And this as good as it gets, you couldn't find none better
I said you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah
I said you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah
I said you never find me sleeping on the beat

Uh-huh-huh

I said you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah
I said you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah
I said you never find me sleeping on the beats oh nah
