K.A.A.N.

Make sure you look into my eyes when you speaking, nigga
See I can read between the lines, let's call a spade a spade
I'm dealing with this bad hand, watch how I handle it
My wrist work like a sou-chef
My wordplay is most def
Most definitely out this atmosphere, a black star that'll never burn out
Ooh, I like the way that sounded, never grounded, I be higher
I'm analyzing everything until they say my times up
I do the same shit every day now must a kid remind ya?
I told my story, gave it to 'em, I don't think they like it
I readjust, the sound the same, we'll call it plagiarizing
Expand my mind to see it all, we'll call it visualizing
I want the world like Tony did, minus the complications
State your purpose, who sent ya, 'cause I don't fucking know ya
Cool as a polar bear, chilling out with the coldest shoulder
I'm trying to leave a legacy, you leave and no-one notice
I'm heating up, five hundred degrees; Wayne, New Orleans

Said do you notice?
I can't waste no time, I just been focused
Look me in my eyes, said do you notice
I live on a cloud, I just keep floating
I just keep floating

Some of us deal with the situations we stuck in, what
Living in misery, what
Exist in agony, what
I can't complain but I been better
Fuck it, my shit been butter
Dismissing these motherfuckers
No it's no love lost
These niggas is dove soft
[?] to eat a company like it's duck sauce
These featherweight competitors, I fly by
Flash in the pan, pot calling the kettle black as the hand that feeds him
Said I just keep moving, they all been stagnant
All I ever wanted was the Benz wagon
Whip it like I stole it, hit the better mansion
Money in abundance what I wanna have it
That's, not reality, still Struggle daily is real
It's complicated I feel
But my emotions concealed
Hold them close to my chest
Let them release in this breath

Said do you notice?
I can't waste no time, I just been focused
Look me in my eyes, said do you notice
I live on a cloud, I just keep floating
I just keep floating
