

O.D.B

K.A.A.N.

I am the common denominator
Phenomenal lyrical rapping and innovator
The nigga that wanted to give you a couple of flows that you could savor
Here is the flavor
We bringing the heat and we turning 'em into vapors
See you later
I'm hoping you really aware that [?] we take you
Might forsake you, if it don't make you or break you
I'm burning beats at the stake
With these words I incinerate
I just might detonate like atom bombs, self harm, I disintegrate
Eliminated at exponential rates no expiration date
I penetrate, don't over-compensate, you need to concentrate
You trapped inside your mind incarcerate
You can't exonerate. A modest fate
Reaping whatever you sow, no need to understate
I finally comprehend that common sense is not a common trait
It's really about what you bring to the table my nigga so tell me what did you create?
I demonstrate, initiate, give me a minute to elaborate
Annihilate, I violate, feeling vindictive in a minimal state
It's a feud or related if I do what is needed to view to escape no I never negotiate
I was running the place, I was ducking the hate, I could not emanate, I want to elevate
I prefer to escape, I would never debate, they be legendary on they work that be great
I get rid of the evidence, every trace
Wait, I got psycho killer, Norman Bates
Oh they would love to judge and hate this
Let the novices debate this
Hoping the flows and tone switch up, I bet they all fix up their faces
Watch your motherfucking mouth, you know the shit can get abrasive
Running circles around you bastards so you better tie up your laces
Hoping the rap gods that who are rap frauds
Soft as limp dick, afraid they're selling biscuit
That's a rendition just trying to act hard
They looking to boost their ego, they too concerned with their status
As feeble as weak libidos, them bars in need of Cialis
Shape the anatomy, you know the strategy, fuck around and turn this bitch to a tragedy
Caught in insanity, this is reality, over the limit, we at the capacity
Defying gravity, every normality selling beautiful duality
Never the vanity, getting rid of the calamities
You know that we serving it to a broad salmonella, fresh out of a cellar
I came up flipping these flows, they kicking acapellas
Out of this fucking world, my shit is interstellar
I'm a fortune teller, spitting pepper for forever
Will I fail? I tell them never
I am as high as 757s moving my propellers
Plus I learn from every loss I ever took, I'm not a dweller
Never the lesser, these endeavors are destined to lead the pressure
You could not measure the effort to test this you need professors
The class is in session, assessing the same old shit
I would never participate when dissertation sound like this
With all of these imitations, it's easy to see that it's rigged
These rappers are playing a fucking part, I don't believe that shit
