Ah
Yes sir
Let's go

Shoulda went insane from all the pressure, somehow I stay motivated
Started out with nothing, on my own, now they see what I cultivated
Feeling like my time is coming soon so I stay focused on the daily
It was not an option to regress, I will progress, I must confess
I'm on my shit
Seven days a week, yes I'm still at it you can see
I'm on my shit
Never made excuses, I fall down I get back up
I'm on my shit
Only so much time I got, go hard before it ends
I'm on my shit
I'm on a mission, gotta get it, never quit

Born in the world as a convalescence, I was motivated from the jump I Couldn't be standing around with the same pedestrians or watching the time fly
I had to switch it up like I was ambidextrous to get where I wanted to be
I was under the impression that you had to hustle and sacrifice for a dream
Look if I cut a record then I do it again as I work in repetitive fashion
The feeling is therapeutic so I had to do it, it's connected to me and my passion
I'm giving a billion percent, I know anything less is a waste of my natural talent
I told 'em I take this shit serious, end of conversation period, work 'til I
'm feeling delirious
I know some people that threw in the towel because they couldn't see the results
Underestimate the effort it takes and you fold, it ain't what you thought
You gotta show some determination if the setbacks leave you terminated
Shit isn't complicated, gotta stay motivated

Started out with nothing, on my own, now they see what I cultivated
Feeling like my time is coming soon so I stay focused on the daily
It was not an option to regress, I will progress, I must confess
I'm on my shit
Seven days a week, yes I'm still at it you can see
I'm on my shit
Never made excuses, I fall down I get back up
I'm on my shit
Only so much time I got, go hard before it ends
I'm on my shit
I'm on a mission, gotta get it, never quit

"S" to the "H" to the "I" to the "T" and the plan I plot is a beautiful scheme
Like a mastermind, I pull the strings, a marionette that gets set the message is sent
I just be moving intentionally, it's the way that I be, I'm eternally free
And they wanted me outta the picture to see, a scenario where they could take everything
Feeling like Vito Corleone before they attempt the assassination
Got my finger on top of the pulse and it's palpitating, pushing powerful pro duct to

Passing the politics, pile up the pennies and pay all the penalties
Play your position and save all your energy, it's just a matter of time before we battle with the enemy
Looking like a war, bring it to your door
What is in store, tell 'em I can dive deep in the madness
Give 'em what they want, they can have more
I don't wanna beat around the bush, I gotta make it to the top floor
I know it's a marathon, I'm running 'til the wheels fall off, but I'm not stranded
I will take advantage, I refuse to panic

Shoulda went insane from all the pressure, somehow I stay motivated
Started out with nothing, on my own, now they see what I cultivated
Feeling like my time is coming soon so I stay focused on the daily
It was not an option to regress, I will progress, I must confess
I'm on my shit
Seven days a week, yes I'm still at it you can see
I'm on my shit
Never made excuses, I fall down I get back up
I'm on my shit
Only so much time I got, go hard before it ends
I'm on my shit
I'm on a mission, gotta get it, never quit
