

Only Life

K.A.A.N.

The only life that I know, the only one that I got
We made it happen on our own that's right the boys took a shot
If you don't like it stay the fuck out of my way
To tell the truth there's nothing left that I could say

The only life that I know, the only one that I got
We made it happen on our own that's right the boys took a shot
If you don't like it stay the fuck out of my way
To tell the truth there's nothing left that I could say

Rap it up
Package up
Mess it up
Run it up
Light it up
Feel the high, feel the love, feel the vibe

Play the game to get here, goddamn
Change the world and say "yes I can"
Still fuck 'em all I don't want no friends
This life I live this ain't what I chose
Do all of this
My hands tied, eyes closed
Just kick the shit, the flow tae kwon do
You feel the shit
I tell 'em "yes I know"

Gave my heart, I gave my soul

No game of thrones, this shit real
No game at all, this shit I'll

My frame of mind is on kill
Don't waste my time I don't feel

Hesitate; I never did it
Dirty dozen with the digits
No funds, picture pennies
Lay the pipe for your opinions
I'm alive with the sinners
Sit in silence with the sinners
We just stacking for the winter
You were spending in the summer
I was focused on the come-up
I was adding up the numbers
Unstable in the struggle
Glot came with the hustle
(Veinrange) with the muscle
You a bitch that needed muzzle
Imma own you accustomed and conquered these motherfuckers acting like they really did it, in reality they looking really silly. DDT these niggas in their own city cause I'd really like to see it
Laaaaawd

The only life that I know, the only one that I got
We made it happen on our own that's right the boys took a shot
If you don't like it stay the fuck out of my way

To tell the truth there's nothing left that I could say

The only life that I know, the only one that I got
We made it happen on our own that's right the boys took a shot
If you don't like it stay the fuck out of my way
To tell the truth there's nothing left that I could say

Mac full of bad hoes (bad hoes)
Back full of that good (that good)
I won't look for the actress, for the mattress and a fat bull [?]
I'll go to the redlight, hit me, kinda hope my friends ride with me
On the road, hit a show
Gogogo
I'm a pro when the lenses hit me
"I would like a picture" On me
I don't want your figure, honey
I don't laugh at digits, honey
You can know your business, honey
You can lick a dick like honey
You can suck a dick like a stick on your lunch break
You can suck a dick like a stick for some money
You can never take this from me (from me)
You can never take this from me (from me)

The only life that I know, the only one that I got
We made it happen on our own that's right the boys took a shot
If you don't like it stay the fuck out of my way
To tell the truth there's nothing left that I could say

The only life that I know, the only one that I got
We made it happen on our own that's right the boys took a shot
If you don't like it stay the fuck out of my way
To tell the truth there's nothing left that I could say

To tell the truth there's nothing left that I could say

Knowledge, nigga
You either
Yeah
You either
Yeah, alright
You either

You either pay me no mind or pay me no never
See I'll be dope forever sipping from my chalice filled with all my red wine
Arm it like I'm never [?] with desperados
I need you follow the path down to righteousness
And light those left in the dark
With an idea like a spark
But what I fear is I'm lost or I might fear to the wrong but I'm quite clear in the songs if you disagree then you're gone
Never bow down is a mission I is never that hit-or-miss
I've never been I'm feeling like a veteran
This dissertation I deliver is definitely different
I told em keep their distance, back the fuck off of me (tell 'em nigga)
Nigga Tarantino [?] figure like a boss, nigga
Who said you was dope, boy?
That shit was sounding off, nigga
All of y'all have been warned, this often [?]
Eat these beats like benjay is my flow, it's in a trenchant
All my shit is straight but my competition they been gay, comprehend?
The master teach the student, I'm a Sensei deceitful
I see the deceit and it's sad to say we'll never be equal

I speak to the people, these niggas only leech of the people, the reason they bleed and not reach the return, reach for the salaries
And then kill it on every motherfucking beat that I step on
The world like Laura Winslow, that hoe just wanna fuck Stefan
And so on, and so on, and so on, and so on
