

Patience

K.A.A.N.

Smooth

Yes

Can we start?

I think you niggas lack (the patience)

I think you niggas lack (the patience)

Leggo

I been down for so damn long yet I'm still active in this shit

Realized that years ago I had a passion for this shit

They done closed so many doors I had to go the other end

This shit don't phase me, maybe I'm crazy, I'ma keep waiting

The one thing a nigga never lack is (patience)

Looking at how shit go, don't take no days off, no I got too much (patience)

I done seen niggas get close and then fall the fuck off 'cause they never had (patience)

I done been high, I done been low, maybe I fell down but I got (back back up)

Opportunity might not come now but you can't slow down and you can't lack (patience)

This shit is simple my nigga, it's mind over matter, the motive is plain

I show up when it's good, I show up when it's bad

I show up in the sun, I show up in the rain

I'm cerebral as fuck with the way that I move now

Pay attention, I'm peeping the fucking angles

On my way, your position could be in danger

When you lacking the heart or the motivation

You could lose it as quick as you got it, you know

Can't you see that this shit ain't a guarantee

Nothing is promised, I'm taking advantage to make sure I get what I need

Taking the necessary steps, I'm ready whenever the moment arises

I feel something bright up on the horizon, patiently waiting, I got it

I been down for so damn long yet I'm still active in this shit

Realized that years ago I had a passion for this shit

They done closed so many doors I had to go the other end

This shit don't phase me, maybe I'm crazy, I'ma keep waiting

The one thing a nigga never lack is (patience)

I done been high, I done been low, maybe I fell down but I got (back back up)

Opportunity might not come now but you can't slow down and you can't lack (patience)

Realizing that I been in agreement, no matter what happens I won't ever quit it

Feel like this shit is divine intervention, I know it's my purpose, I still got a vision

How much you willing to sacrifice until the moment is yours, you make the decision

If it's a penny or if it's a million's irrelevant nigga you go till you get it

I'm in the place so I don't give a fuck 'bout excuses, really I don't need those

What I want is success, ain't nothing less, with every breath, nigga I press

Pushing the limit, I push my agenda until there isn't nothing left
Conquer your mind, develop some patience, that is the test

I been down for so damn long yet I'm still active in this shit
