

Rain

K.A.A.N.

Rain fallin'
Fallin' down on me
Blessing's come from
Out no where
Blessing's come from
Out no where
Blessing's come from
Out no where
And I love it when you hate it girl
St- starin' at me like you wanna kill me
Yeauh
Feelin' like somebody when you near me
Yea yea yea yea
Clean it up, don't make such a mess
Here's somethin' you don't know 'bout me

Damn I love or hate it, I mean
Damn I love a hater
Niggas say they wanna smoke
But they can barely stand the vapors
Do yourself a huge favor
Spend a lotta less time worryin' 'bout your neighbors
You know, envy's a potent motivator
I'd feel the same way if I was losin' 10 years later
Still a fuckin' spectator, sideline seat-filler
All-around downgrade from what you used to be nigga
The pinnacle was 18
By 21 knocked off the pedestal
Washed up at 22
My nigga you been fading
Perfect example of everything a nigga shouldn't ever do
Thought you was a [?] found with a centerfold
An Olympic swimming pool and a tennis court
Tannery diamond Burberry winter coat
Instead you 4 months behind on your child support
Almost 30 years old you in your mammy's hammock
Tried to fly but almost died from the awkward landing
Had an opportunity but then you panicked
And so it passed you by, lord why?
I need shelter from the

Yea yea yea yea
Clean it up, don't make such a mess
Well I well I well I

Damn I love the paper
Never would I pay her
Even though that pussy sweet
Want some for now some for later
No I ain't a player
Just proofread the manual
Trophies and royalties
I get that on the annual
And you all up on my balls
I threw my jewels on the edge of Niagara Falls
Courtesy of Don Julio
This is how, this is how, this is how be ball
My life's a movie y'all
No fairy tale-in at all
Now all this you wishin' for a call back
The fuck you call that?
Life's a script with characters
It's all an act
And for that shit, I got a little room
[?] sealin' the door, so get your shit and move
You discourage me nigga, you worry me nigga
All your verses are problems that [?]
I'm avoiding the
