From the moment that I told myself I do this for the rest of my days
Irregardless of the plays of the fame or the fortune
I'm workin' with a vision I feel is more important Than any monetary to me
I'm not concerned with the amount of money I currently count
Attention was all I wanted
That would mean I'm superficial and hypocritical
Write and live a life that they can diss but destitution is the normal form of fantasy
I'm happy when to wake up to reality and realize I really ain't shit
Who the fuck I ever reach, you even listen when I speak?
This speed is all I seem to talk about
I've been appointed as a poet, disposing many emotions
Supposedly all the pain is the part that makes it relatable
Opinions I don't need and you might as well keep 'em
I'm always too mean and I never make an apology
Appropriate a policy properly
This a positive proposition, the pencil cooperation
The quota by defamation, amazing by definition
Perfect by repetition, accepted by statisticians
Deceit a professional, put his life in the lyrics
I wanna give you the truth
I testify with the real, the feel is foreign to fakes
It's not familiar to snakes, I've made mistakes in the past
Gradually I progressed and graduated into a man
I tell myself I can again and against so I don't forget
Submissive within your actions, I'm actually reactin'
Relaxin' is for the weak and the fain of heart
I departed away from the negativity
Energy's an anomaly, modesty's a commodity
Modified by the masses, I've mastered the art of making 'em think
I could lead you to the water but I still can't force you to drink
I can influence your decision but I never make it for ya

The only effort I could ever give is legendary

The success of failure they will judge you by does not apply to me, myself n or I

The type of focus they remember for centuries

Documented is the greatest that ever did it but different to most

We had ulterior motives to motivate and subdue us

Assuming the tension's where the purest they could possibly be

[?] I plan to see and watch it grow from the earth

You can't determine my worth, I'm not obliged to comply

I passed on any type of judgment, they don't know me at all

You look confused from my view, I do whatever I choose

Giving nothing but the Gospel, I supply through a sound

Complicated by the noise that I'm attempting to drown

Profound innovation defacing the soul is but someone control

I can see that it's hopeless
