

My shit amazing, no limitation
This is progression in real time
Sharp as a razor, I been on point
Stuck to the script and I got mine
They blowing me up like a hotline
My shit going up, it's about time
Feel like I really deserve it all
Seen the writings on the fucking wall
Call me motivated, call me dedicated
Call me what you want but never call me lazy
Call me motivated, call me dedicated
Call me what you want but never call me lazy ah

Still playing my role
Still the sickest motherfucker I know
With the pen and I'm in control
Never folded or sold my soul
Never glorified delusions of grandeur
I never tried to meet the crazy standards
Couldn't rectify the wrongs they hand us
To objectify your mind and manners, it's Similar to new peace
The intent to ascend and what we could be
I'm unlocking the beast that they can't see
I'm releasing tension inside me
I've been ready for action
Regular regiment in my normal fashion
Giving 'em everything, they feel the passion
I been looking ahead trying to avoid distractions, yeah

My shit amazing, no limitation
This is progression in real time
Sharp as a razor, I been on point
Stuck to the script and I got mine
They blowing me up like a hotline
My shit going up, it's about time
Feel like I really deserve it all
Seen the writings on the fucking wall
Call me motivated, call me dedicated
Call me what you want but never call me lazy
Call me motivated, call me dedicated
Call me what you want but never call me lazy ah

Feeling like an entity
Got me feeling like the man that I'm meant to be
I'm obliged to the signs that were sent to me
Pray that my shit is around for a century
Instantly connect with the average
Resonating with the masses
Realizing when I craft it I mastered the basics
Let 'em bask in my greatness
Come to grips and face it
It might be a little bit uncomfortable if you chase it
Better tell 'em double knot those laces
Please pay attention, we off to the races
Run in circles 'round the competition
Or any motherfucker tryna block the vision

I leveled it to a level where I'm past efficient
My light shine bright through the darkest tints, no coincidence

My shit amazing, no limitation
This is progression in real time
Sharp as a razor, I been on point
Stuck to the script and I got mine
They blowing me up like a hotline
My shit going up, it's about time
Feel like I really deserve it all
Seen the writings on the fucking wall
Call me motivated, call me dedicated
Call me what you want but never call me lazy
Call me motivated, call me dedicated
Call me what you want but never call me lazy ah
