

Stadium Status

K.A.A.N.

Ay kid we cashing out
I'm Jerry Rice, Terrell Owens on this paper route
Hall of fame jackets for the whole clip, we major now
Stadium status, palladium packets
And bitch I'm spitting radiant magic, unleashing this havoc

I put the nail inside the casket with this sick ass shit
Consuming an ounce of [?] the regular, my mind ain't hit
I'm beyond my peers, I'm feeling as though I made that clear
This existential essence prevalent when I play on they fears
Still like to [?] this shit, the regular rowdiness
The mountain top was reached and towered it
I fucking devour shit, just manifesting, I'm peripherating
Planting seeds, initiating
These casualties of war are [?] on the road to greatness

Ay kid we cashing out
I'm Jerry Rice, Terrell Owens on this paper route
Hall of fame jackets for the whole clip, we major now
Stadium status, palladium packets
And bitch I'm spitting radiant magic, unleashing this havoc

We [?] down, kick the door in, right off of the hinges
Off with they heads, it's all for the bread
It's all for a check, it's all for a rep
And depending on what they offer, nigga you might be next
I detest, tell 'em we ain't stressed, we feel revitalized
There ain't no need for co-signs to verify what's obvious
For human eyes and ears to see and hear, I'll never disappear
Catastrophic nature of my taste to which they can adhere
Faulty landing gear the reason why you niggas crash and veer

Ay kid we cashing out
Hall of fame jackets for the whole clip, we major now
