K.A.A.N.

Finding ways to the light
Through the dark path I
Swing for my life
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you
Finding ways to the light
Through the dark path I
Swing for my life
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you

I know you you's a WiFi nigga
Everything you upload is a lie my nigga
Kaboom, guess who stepped in the room
A motherfucker that ain't got shit to prove
And I suggest that you back-down 'cause if ya don't
'Cause if ya don't back down
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you or me

Try bitch try, you will fall on your face
Challenge me my nigga I swear that shit is a waste
Nah, this ain't a threat and I ain't tryna catch a case
But, know the meaning of our kill for first place
So competition is nothin'
Competition is done
I came to [?]
Tell that nigga he's done
Tell him I'm done playing games fucker
That's the way that I came through
Startin' all kinds of fires
The fuck you came to do, sit?
I mean you claim you wore the same shoes
But shit your treads too clean, that ain't what fame do
That ain't the path I took nigga trust
Started from the mothafuckin' bottom go figure us
Shit I seen'll make a nigga gone if the trigga bust
Right at his own melon if he ain't with this shit enough
Perseverance and conviction your skin ain't thick enough
Or is it my nigga?
We'll see when the drama gets picken up
'Cause me, I keeps on

Finding ways to the light
Through the darkness
Swing for my life
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you
It's you
Finding ways to the light
Through the darkness
Swing for my life
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you

I know you you's a WiFi nigga
Everything you upload is a lie my nigga
Kaboom, guess who stepped in the room
A young mothafucka who ain't got shit to lose
And I strongly suggest that you back down 'cause if ya don't
'Cause if ya don't back down

It's gon' be a problem
Let me get you here, right quick
I don't make no damn mistakes
Or strike in the same place like, lightning
That attitude will get you knocked the fuck out
And I feel like, Tyson
Y'all got a hand of cards to play
But I play mine better than, you did
Man these niggas so damn clueless
I move so under the radar
Give a fuck if you know what I'm workin' on
I hate progress report cards
I just work hard
So why you wanna know (huh)
Is the question haunting you (what)
Just know the reason why you do this shit is what you're listenin' to (nah)
But the template I made
I could recreate
Y'all just copy that
Call it procreate
My associates
Known to make a mess
Stompin' over shit
All the while I'm just

Finding ways to the light
Through the darkness
Swing for my life
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me

It's you
Finding ways to the light
Through the darkness
Swing for my life
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you or me
It's you or me
It's me
It's you

So this mothafucka gon' tell me
I thought we was fine nigga
I thought we was homies
I said
Well how much does that shit cost mothafucka?

You brought everything for me
All my wants, my hopes and dreams
Sharing's not your type of thing
(Even though you didn't make the plan)
When did I become your employee
(When the fuck did I ever work for you)
