

That's All

K.A.A.N.

Take off

Any moment, any minute I said we could break out

Try to lock the door and keep us at a distance, I know

It's gon' take a little time for all of this to work out

But it's all gon' work out

That's all

That's all, that's all, that's all

Through the up's and down's we go

Unsure which way to go

We'll find our way back home

That's all, that's all, that's all

Just pray before you fall

The world, it seems so small

That's all, that's all, that's all

Patience, I need more, please

Broke up like divorcees

Y'all sound like D4L

Man by default y'all fail

Dive into the water, bet you drown

The weight of the world on my shoulders now

My anchor's my faith, I'ma hold it down (hold it down, hold it down, hold it down)

They get you in shape with the run-around

I know they lay outta the up's and down's

Shit a lay-up yet it's going down

A finger-roll to the goal

In the cut I play the post

This should balance out the lows

This a ballad for your soul

A premonition, not a song

How you see the signs and read 'em wrong?

How you go alone to get along?

Ain't this everything you ever wanted

You could really have it if you really want it

You could really get it if you really 'bout it

Say you really do it but I really doubt it

More space, more space

Bow head, say grace

Double-back about face

Triple my amount, please

Heart cold, might freeze

Warm winds, cool breeze

This mine, nigga please

Visionary with a dream

That's all, that's all, that's

More than most will ever do

More than most will ever see

Think I got telepathy

Don't believe in these new deities

Tell 'em open they mind, DMT

Rough as diamond, that is DDT

We can televise it, TNT

Pay-per-view for the viewers to view it

Overproduce it, create the illusion

Play on both sides, the game is collusion

Decisions, decisions, man, I let you choose it

This shit is a ride that was made for amusement
They either gon' pay for the access
Or keep sleepin' on us like mattresses

Take off

Any moment, any minute I said we could break out
Try to lock the door and keep us at a distance, I know
It's gon' take a little time for all of this to work out
But it's all gon' work out
That's all
That's all, that's all, that's all
Through the up's and down's we go
Unsure which way to go
We'll find our way back home
That's all, that's all, that's all
Just pray before you fall
The world, it seems so small
That's all, that's all, that's all
