

The Abyss

K.A.A.N.

Lost in the deep, tread lightly
Gets harder to breath, I fight it Wanting a win, I just move on Flying away, I float so far
In the abyss, this space unknown, I keep calling

Now what means most to you ain't much to me, now I can see that Reachin' for my pride every time my confidence is low as kneeca ps

Feelin' like we off commercial break, I had to tell 'em "We bac k"

Really ain't much to my story

Put the pain on the page, I pour it

Had to put some things in order

Had to put perspectives in this picture that I'm painting for ' em

Try to see the bright side in this bitch, I can't get out of da rkness

Tryin' to find my foresight in my vision, follow my gut, my int uition

Gotta be more Lord, this ain't living

Oh, oh, oh, oh

Dealing with the ups and the downs right now

Oh, oh, oh, oh

Never let a hard time break me down

Oh, oh, oh, oh

Hard to see the light when you living in the dark

Hard to move on when you stuck inside the past

Hard to save a dime when the shit don't last
