

The Plot Thickens

K.A.A.N.

Watch the plot thicken
It get deep in front if ya eyes
Now the clock ticking
It feel like a matter of time
It's all that
It's all that
It's all that
Flipping flows kicking lyrics
Let the rhythm decide
Running a million miles an hour
Trying to get to the prize
It's all that
It's all that
It's all that

I tell em we keep progressing
Gotta learn from lesson
Destiny manifested
Never been the circumstantial
Presence
Look around start reassigning
Set backs might be a blessing
Truth can be refreshing
If you ain't living no lie
Inside you been regressing
I been pressing
Focus omnipresent
We present the essence
What's the message
What are we addressing
In this sacred session
Decompressing
Dealing with a heavy heart
I'm trying to keep expressing
Not surprising
Spitting I hit the mark
Remarkable skills impressing
All of my shifts compelling
My story's what I'm yelling
My truth is what I'm telling
These songs is what I'm selling
Rebelling
Embellishing nothing
Unsettling
Making assumptions
Irrelevant
You saying nothing
We serving
A sensitive subject
Discuss The current state of the world
How It look disgusting
We just promoting growth
Attain the most becoming something
We keep the system bumping
Consistent don't interrupt it
It's food for thought to help em grow
When you feeding em sustance

Watch the plot thicken
Now the clock ticking
It feel like a matter of time
It's all that
It's all that
It's all that
Flipping flows kicking lyrics
Trying to get to the prize
It's all that
It's all that
It's all that

Making it complicated
Lacking the concentration
Needed to conquer greatness
Out of the matrix
Off of the hamster wheel
I was running out of patience
Operating
We at surgical level with lyrics
The styles invasive
They embrace it
Sit at the table I built with the ppl around me
Patient
One time for the non complacent
That had rose up out them basement
Then stubbles they way to stages
The reception was amazing
No way to play shit safe
Go hard everyday till
The plan can blossom
One pace to keep in yo race
Gotta lock it in to hurdle them problems
You know that the reaper watching
You know that the vultures plotting
You know that the schemers clocking
Want you to waist all yo energy
Turn ya dream to a memory
Fade away and it rest in peace
Complacency is the recipie that's been Killing off yo consistency
I don't feel no sympathy
My opinion is let it be
That's from now till infinity
Let it live for eternity
Flame ell be burning eternally
Bullshit is not concerning me
I'm moving with a sense of urgency
Like it's an emergency

Watch the plot thicken
Now the clock ticking
It's all that
It's all that
It's all that
Flipping flows kicking lyrics

Running a million miles an hour
It's all that
It's all that
It's all that
