

Time

K.A.A.N.

Take this with a grain of salt
That you can sprinkle like seeds and watch that grow
You can do or you don't, it's all your call
But say you will when you won't, don't let me fall
And it's alright
And it's alright
Take your time don't drive too hard
And if it's meant to be it will all work out
You gotta take things slow, don't go too fast
You should enjoy it all now 'cause it might just pass
And it's alright

Things ain't always what they seem
And it's alright
The world could end in the blink of an eye
And the planes might crash
Fog turn into ash
The sky turn black
An invasion, attack
It can happen any moment
You can never know the time
Politicians politicking, they don't pay us any mind
What's in the food that you eat?
What's in the water that you drink?
What's in the weed that you smoke?
You don't even fucking know
What's in the air that you breathe?
Give a fuck about what they be selling me
My life ain't for sale, it for free
So I-

Enjoy my day like it's my last on Earth
And that's all I can do for whatever it's worth
I'm not finna live my life for no-no-nobody else
Live nobody else
Live nobody else

Take this with a grain of salt
That you can sprinkle like seeds and watch that grow
You can do or you don't, it's all your call
But say you will when you won't, don't let me fall
And it's alright
And it's alright
Take your time don't drive too hard
And if it's meant to be it will all work out
You gotta take things slow, don't go too fast
You should enjoy it all now 'cause it might just pass
And it's alright

Life, it goes too quick, I know
But it's alright
I just need more time, I know
That the sky might fall
Come down on us all
And your heart might stop
Leave your body in a shock
Or your mind might close

Leave you lost in the known
Or the world don't spin
Yeah it all might end
What's the reason for your pain
What's your purpose, what's your gain
What's the truth that you know
Where's the love, where's the growth
Giving all your energy
To this motherfucking white noise
Not devoid, paranoid
But I'mma just

Enjoy my day like it's my last on Earth
And that's all I can do for whatever it's worth
I'm not finna live my life for no-no-nobody else
Live nobody else
Live nobody else

I know
I know you're working
I know you're working on something real big
Is there anything I can do to help?
