K.A.A.N.

Eh
A lotta time nigga, eh
Infinite
Eh
God

They couldn't comprehend what I accomplished 'cause they never came up from nothing (nothing)
A beautiful struggle the way that I got it, you might see that shit as disgusting
Oh yeah they hating on me for no reason but fuck it my nigga, I love it (love it)
I am a testament of what can happen whenever you focus and use your mind
I put in the time, it was a battle, I fought it, I won it, I stood on the line
I put in the time, never complained 'bout the process even when the sun didn't shine
I put in the time, you gotta wait for your time, it's just a matter of time
All good things come to you when you work and you put in the Maximum effort, I know it's all about the dedication that you put in this shit, nigga

I had my foot on the gas from the day that I started this shit, never let off that bitch I'ma rev the engine till it's no longer running
It's not a question of how bad do I want it
It's more like a matter of time (time)
I trust in the process, it's fine (fine)
In control of my destiny, I could never let this shit get the best of me
I know a higher power steady blessing me
I'm invested in myself, give a fuck if niggas help
Know that I'm giving them hell till I meet the reaper
I'm on track with my shit like I wear Adidas
And my battery full, that's a special feature
I'm a different creature and I'm killing leeches
Get the fuck off of me please, only in me I believe
I will not make an excuse my nigga, I get this shit by any means

They couldn't comprehend what I accomplished 'cause they never came up from nothing (nothing)
A beautiful struggle the way that I got it, you might see that shit as disgusting
Oh yeah they hating on me for no reason but fuck it my nigga, I love it (love it)

I put in the time, you gotta wait for your time, it's just a matter of time
All good things come to you when you work and you

Deal with your cards the way that they were dealt to you nigga
I play my hand and I don't need a shuffle
See I crack the ceiling when they put that shit over me
Took some time to get them people to notice me
I'm getting closer to be where I need to be

If you ain't starve with me, no you can't eat with me
No need to smile in my face, I feel the hate
Secretly you just compete with me
Gang I'm forever, you cooked your shit in the microwave, mine's out the oven
, it's better
I did this shit with intentions of lasting for centuries, you in this bitch for a second
This shit ain't a game, no this shit is my life
So I'm playing for keeps and you playing like Tekken
I cannot respect it, a chip on my shoulder from lack of attention, I'm feeli ng neglected
That's just a syndrome of a middle child from a dark home
Like a lone wolf, in the deep woods
I took the route with the detours

They couldn't comprehend what I accomplished 'cause they never came up from nothing (nothing)
A beautiful struggle the way that I got it, you might see that shit as disgu
