

Ay, knowledge, lawd, yup, ay, look

The time, it passes, I put my pain in these prophecies, proper hypothesis, promise prompting me to compressing this, plead for peace in my messages, press my pen on the page, they amazed, engaged, and the sages I save and slate, it's salacious, I sanctify with the sound like this, holy water I found I just, pray Jehovah can hear me, I panic over discretions, it sets a stress that's affecting this lecture, sure to alleviate, abbreviate my grievances, grief I feel's intermediate, leave that shit at the alter, my father's fault that I'm farther from finding a piece /peace of mind, I depict my flaws as peculiar, aggression kept in my conscience, depression constantly calling, I'm falling and fading fast from the memories of my past, lawd

I remember my adolescence, when we were left with a tyrant, that took the time to degrade and berate us, feeling deflated, I favor my isolation, was super safe in seclusion, assume I'm soon to succumb, I've become accustomed to misery, this pain is second nature, without it I don't feel comfortable, very socially awkward, [?], with the pen I ascend to tell you, what's in my position, purpose, condemned, I'm using my mind as a tool, but if that's been used and abused, I'm feeling confused, as I view my life as a detriment, dire to feel affection, I have to ask for approval, I have to be heavily sedated, elated by agony, mutilating a track, I need medication for forever, lawd

Step on the mic and I said that I'm running a circle around, the flow is astounding, a positive valence, guess that I really been running for hours, giving the people a lyrical ballad, that wasn't easily (winned?) or devoured, never a coward, niggas are moving a [?], keeping it higher, deal with the lows, I see them a lot, with nowhere to go, emotions I've shown, considering calling it off because of the pain that I feel on the regular, very consistent, my attitude bitter, my temperament testing, the word is the way I will lead, and I follow, apologies, I can't give them, you listening often, I'm straight, to see the potential I said that I cane, I feel insecure I don't know who I am, lawd, fuck, knowledge, God bless
