

Welcome

K.A.A.N.

Welcome to the party
Step right in and have yourself a ball
Maybe there's an old pal or an old girl you might recall
Blev

Emphasis back on my effort
Ever since I could remember
Set a goal, knock it down
Watch it fall, yeah they timber
I took chances, I took trips
They took advantage of my shit
They took a mile, I gave an inch
I elevated, I ain't here
I got no reservations but decisions I made for my own sake
I'm protecting my shit like a home safe
I've been running, running tryna make it happen
Off the hamster wheel, I'm in my own race
The anxiety of the propriety
I just been writing and taking my vitamins
And I been working to find some enlightenment
I been on top of my shit like a condiment
Break out the box that they put me in constantly
I'll never stop, I do not get fatigued
I'm ahead of my time and I been in the lead in a different league
All of my shit is elite, how the fuck do you [?]
Man these niggas are weak
I was trying to eat, they was trying to leash
And I wanted the help but that shit isn't free
I was trying to be better to set the example
I feel like reality gets hard to handle
My nigga we animals feasting on animals
Cannibalstic, shit is sadistic
Break the meniscus, tryna keep up with the pace that they gifted
Elevated, I reside with the lifted
Nine times outta ten I'ma get that, handle my business
