

Who Do U Think U Are

K.A.A.N.

I don't care about your car
Or I don't care about your girl
I don't care if you a star
Or if you travel round the world
They say the meek receive it all
Why do we burn down and crash
Try to bow before you crawl
That's how you land hard on your ass

And you wanna, wanna take from me
Taking all my love and energy
I can't seem to find no empathy
I been searching for the remedy

Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)

So you decide to move them stars above
You feel like the world should shower you with all their love
You feeling like you want it all, you never had enough
You just complaining about the things you can't control at all
Lawd

And you wanna, wanna take from me
Taking all my love and energy
I can't seem to find no empathy
I been searching for the remedy

Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)
Who do you think you are?
(Who do you think you are?)

This the death of my pride and ego
Nah we ain't concerned if they following, that's where we go
I never play the fucking hero, I ain't here to save ya
Read the Bible if you looking for a holy savior
Cause we don't care about the worldly possessions
Oppression of sound mind so in due time they all fall, bitch
Don't blow my high or kill my vibe
In these dark times we just trying to spread a life to you
Pay attention case I merely lie to you
Lift your spirit up is what I like to do

The Midas touch I do possess
Try to give them purpose, not the uselessness
Tell a nigga use this shit as strength in silence
Now let 'em propel us so we can find their propellers
Feeling like Goodfellas, their isn't much you can tell us
I told 'em why you buying in if it ain't gon' help us
The lost are restless
We out like exits
Lawd!

And you wanna, wanna take from me
Taking all my love and energy
I can't seem to find no empathy
I been searching for the remedy

Who do you think you are?

Blood turns black
Due to a lack of oxygen
Some would say it's due to an excessive amount of iron
Some would even argue it's based off a lack of justice
Love, equality
Lacking what we need in this world can effect us greatly
Knowing what we need in order to face life's challenges is necessary
Compassion, understanding
Banging-ass jams
And getting higher than a motherfucker
