ISSUES

Kaash Paige

Can't act like you ain't been on my mind
The words I'm tryna say are really hard to find
Baby, can you save me, save me
Baby, can you save me, save me
Blame me, blame me, blame me
I notice stuff is so simple
I notice stuff is on my mental
I know you be thinking I'm the issue
I really wanna know who hurt you
I don't got time to be hurt
You said that you wanna be hurt
I get in the whip and I skrt
I get in the whip and I skrt, oh-oh-oh
I skrt off on a bitch
Relationship costs so much chips
Put everybody all in the dip
Situations never got reasoning
Shout out to my bitch, I'll see you again
I'll spin the block, my treacherous twin
I'll spin the block this season again

We both got issues, we both got issues
Nobody's perfect
We both got issues, we both issues
But trust me, baby, it's worth it
(Trust me, baby, it's worth it, trust me, baby, it's worth it)
I been workin', I deserve it
(Trust me, baby, it's worth it, trust me, baby, it's worth it)
Been observin', you do this shit on purpose

I know, I know that I'll be fine
Sometimes, sometimes, wondering if you are really mine and
We can really take some time out
Had to see what the hype's 'bout
It's like I'm the bad guy, they don't wanna see my side
I'm always wrong, you're right
Tell your friends I'm triflin'
I should've never, never tried this shit
Relationships going bad again

We both got issues, we both got issues
Bring on the tissues, bring on the tissues
We both got issues, we both got issues
Bring on the tissues, bring on the tissues
