

Love Songs

Kaash Paige

I miss my cocoa butter kisses, hope you smile when you listen (Yeah, yeah)
Ain't no competition, just competin' for attention (Yeah, yeah)
And you like, "I'm not on no games" (Whoa)
Well, baby, I been peepin', and you ain't been the same
Like, who been on your mind? Who got your time?
Who you been vibin' with and why I can't make you mine?
You used to be texting me, checking me, calling me your slime
And now you treat me like my worth less than a dime

And if we paint a perfect picture, we can make it last forever
And you the only one I want to wear my orange sweater
I told you I am down for the worse or the better
But I keep sticking to you 'cause them four stupid letters
You got me singing love songs (Yeah), love songs, love songs
You got me singing love songs, love songs, love songs (Yeah, yeah)
You got me singing love songs, love songs, love songs (Yeah, yeah)
You got me singing love songs (Uh), love songs, love songs (Uh)

Hood therapy, open my notepad, get to jotting notes
Everything you saying is fine but have you tried a new approach?
Ah, 2020, I see it clear
I'm not tryna "Little Fears" the love but finding love looking in the mirror
Love songs, ayy, B2K and them
It's a lot of hoes but I don't play with them
I don't wanna lay with 'em, wouldn't start my day with 'em
Wouldn't even share a shade with 'em, they be ashy
This for my baby, she classy, yeah (D4L)
And still down to fuck in the backseat, yeah

And if we paint a perfect picture, we can make it last forever (Oh)
And you the only one I want to wear my orange sweater
I told you I am down for the worse or the better
But I keep sticking to you 'cause them four stupid letters
You got me singing love songs, love songs, love songs
You got me singing love songs, love songs, love songs
You got me singing love songs, love songs, love songs
You got me singing love songs, love songs, love songs
